

Interview Questions / Talking Points

1. How long have you been a writer?
2. What is the purpose of your book Comes the Southern Revolution?
3. What made you write this book?
4. What is your target audience?
5. How many pages? Chapters? Sections?
6. Why did you label the chapters after the military phonetic alphabet?
7. Why did you include female characters in combat roles?
8. I noticed you have done other radio show interviews, what can you tell me about those interviews?
9. You've given speeches to some "Sons of Confederate Veteran's Camps. What did you have to say to them? And why?
10. What do you see as the main cause of the "American Civil War?"
11. Wasn't the institution of Slavery the main reason for the "American Civil War?"
12. How do you feel about the display of the "Stars and Bars?"
13. Weren't a majority of the Slave owners brutal?
14. Why didn't the slaves revolt after the "Emancipation Proclamation?"
15. What is the summary of Comes the Retribution?
16. Are you planning a Trilogy?
17. If so, have you decided on a title?
18. Why did you write Questions From the North; Answers From the South?
19. How did you come up with the questions for the book?
20. Isn't this book a little one-sided? What about the Northern point of view?
21. Are you planning another book?
22. What inspired you to write Holding Back the Tide?
23. Do you have any other books in mind?
24. What do you have to say to those who feel that slavery was the cause of the Civil War?